SCHEME OF EXAMINATION

1. In the very nature of competitive examination, no syllabus can be prescribed. However, it is an exercise to pick up the best. There would be a single question paper for all the candidates appearing in JET-2009 for seeking admission in the Undergraduate programme in Agriculture/Home Science/Horticulture/Forestry.
2. The Question Paper would be divided into six subjects:
 - (i) Physics
 - (ii) Chemistry
 - (iii) Mathematics
 - (iv) Agriculture
 - (v) Biology
 - (vi) Home Science

The candidates desiring admission in Agriculture/ Horticulture/Forestry would have to attempt any three subjects except Home science.

Female candidates desiring admission in Home Science can attempt any three subjects out of all above six.

3. The question paper will consist of multiple choice type questions (pick up the most suitable answer).
4. The question paper will be in the form of a test booklet containing different subjects: Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Agriculture, Biology and Home Science each is having 40 questions. There would be four suggested answers [(1), (2), (3), (4)] to each question.
5. The candidates are required to choose the correct answer and blacken the corresponding circle with the pen in the answer sheet (details for filling answer sheet given on side I of sample answer sheet). The test booklet may be used by the students for rough work and the squares printed in it may be used for deciding the correct alternative answer. It will be collected from them at the end of examination alongwith the answer sheet. Assessment will be made only on the basis of the answer sheet.

Three marks will be awarded for every correct answer and one mark will be deducted for every wrong answer. Thus, there will be negative marking.

The merit list will be prepared on the basis of the aggregate marks obtained by the candidates, either appearing in one/more than one programme.
6. The answersheet of the test shall not be subject to production before any court (civil or criminal) or before the candidate or any body else on his behalf or before any internal or external authority.
